MEMORANDUM FOR [REDACTED] DIRECTOR,
PSYCHOLOGICAL STRATEGY BOARD:

Subject: Procedure for Handling NSC 10/5 Matters in PSB (Draft dated 20 February 1952).

1. The most difficult and time-consuming part of the procedure will be the determination of the feasibility of the program or major project.

2. Whenever a program or project requires support over and above that which can be furnished by CIA, and particularly from the military point of view, the program or project will undoubtedly be referred to the Director, Psychological Strategy Board, under the provisions of paragraph 4 of your draft dated 20 February 1952.

3. As neither the panel nor the PSB is in a position to determine feasibility I recommend that a paragraph substantially as follows be added to paragraph 4:

"c. Programs and major projects which raise an important question of policy or require a determination of feasibility (such as personnel, fiscal, equipment, and logistical support over and above the support which can be furnished by CIA) will be referred by the Director, acting for the PSB, to the Departments or agencies concerned for their recommendations."
